

Blackheart Man

A powerfully compelling live performance about being Black and British; as told by a Rastafarian born in England to Caribbean parents.

“Social & Historical”

An examination of the 1960s, 70s and early 80s from a Black British perspective.

“Humorous, Lyrical & Thought-provoking”

Combining poetry, narrative monologue, music, video footage and audience interaction.

Witness Blackheart Man’s journey through the ruins of No Man’s Land - recalling his past, determining his future - with startling conclusions about the state of society.

(3 minutes from Leicester Train Station)

The Y Theatre
7 East Street
Leicester
LE1 6EY

www.onpointfilms.com/blackheartman

