

Baroness Ros Howells of St David's

Baroness Ros Howells was educated at St Joseph's Convent, South West London College and City College in Washington DC. In 1955, she married John Charles Howells and they have two daughters. Her career background includes being the Director of the Greenwich Racial Equality Council as well as a Community and Equal Opportunities Worker. Baroness Howells is a trustee of the Stephen Lawrence Charitable Trust, and served as the unofficial advisor to the Lawrence family.

She has worked with the London Voluntary Services Council, Carnival Liaison Committee, and the Greater London Action in Race Equality and has been an active campaigner for justice in the field of race relations.